Your gift to Newman International Academy is tax deductible as allowed by law. Net proceeds will go to the designated project. Any excess funds will be used on a similar project at the discretion of the school board. Donations may not be designated to the account of any individual student or employee. The agreement to contribute monthly is not binding and may be revised at any time. Donor records are private and will only be accessible to the Department of Development, the business office and our legal counsel.

The mission of Newman International Academy is to train and educate future generations of young men and women with wisdom, stature and favor; to give students opportunities to become whole individuals ready to serve the world by helping them reach their highest potential, and to provide in partnership with parents and community a well-rounded education within the context of American heritage.
